

Loving Jesus

The term “prime the pump” is meaningful to anyone who grew up in the country. To get water out of a deep well you pour water into the pump and start moving the handle up and down. Water starts to trickles out and then comes out in a great gush. This principle can be applied to the Christian’s “praise pump”. You may feel lacking in the ability to praise or perhaps you are waiting for a spiritual feeling. Start with a little praise and pour it out by speaking it aloud. You “prime the praise pump” and praise will start to flow from your inner most being.

Everyone loves to hear his name spoken affectionately. Our Savior also takes joy in hearing His name and His wonderful attributes acknowledged.

You will discover your faith and trust are being built up as you call to mind and proclaim the many wonderful characteristics of Jesus. Pause to reflect on the meaning of each.

Increase your love and appreciation for Jesus by speaking aloud the following attributes with a thankful heart.
